WHAT IS BRAIN DUMP?

Scribble out a messy list of all the things that come to mind when you ask yourself the question: "What do I have to do to achieve this goal?"

Do not censor yourself. Write everything and anything that comes to mind.

Aim: To give yourself the uninterrupted space to reflect and really think through what is necessary and not, what is important and not, what actions are realistic and what are truly achievable.

Let's do this!
